Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

The mission of the Hope For The Warriors is to enhance the quality of life for United States Service Members and their families who have been adversely affected by injuries or death in the line of duty; to ensure that the sacrifices of wounded and fallen warriors and their families are never forgotten nor their needs unmet, particularly with regard to the short- and long-term care of the severely injured; and to do and perform all acts, matters and things in connection therewith that may be necessary or desirable to carry out such purposes.

We believe those touched by military service can succeed at home by restoring their sense of self, family, and hope. Nationally, Hope For The Warriors provides comprehensive support programs for service members, veterans, and military families that are focused on transition, health and wellness, peer engagement, and connections to community resources.

Hope For The Warriors understands the challenges, pride, and joy of being a military family. For today, tomorrow, and years to come, we will strive to meet the changing needs of service members and their families.

Hope For The Warriors is a family, united by our shared conviction of honor and sacrifice.

Physical Wellness:

Engages the warrior community in staying active and physically fit through competitive sports and recreational events. HOPE connects warriors and family members to a variety of opportunities to support personal fitness and recreation goals. Whether its running, cycling, hiking, fishing, or hunting, HOPE helps warriors to set goals and track milestones with a healthy competitive spirit.

Emotional Wellness:

Often, a veteran or family member is not able to obtain treatment within their community or is hesitant to seek services from the VA or other sources of mental health care available locally. HOPE's supportive counseling is designed to provide short-term counseling to augment other treatment. Licensed Social Workers provide supportive clinical services to service members, veterans, caregivers, and adult family members needing interim support where a gap in services is identified.

Financial Wellness:

Financial wellness programs assist and support clients during times of crisis and transitions. Clinical case management is provided throughout the process. Program staff provide support through financial grants, referrals, information about resources, supportive counseling, and sharing of knowledge and education. The assistance provided is intended as a temporary support. These programs assist service members, veterans, and their families in two specific ways. First, program coordinators provide integrated case management, financial education with an emphasis on long-term financial stability, and resource referrals that assist the client both today and in the future. Second, if the client meets program eligibility criteria, financial support may be provided to assist the family in the short-term.

Life Roles:

Life Roles programs support active-duty warriors and their family members primarily as they transition to veteran status. These programs address career transition, employment, and educational needs and benefits unique to warriors and military families. Many warriors and their family members face drastically different and new challenges if medically retired or designated as unemployable due to combat or service-connected injuries. Finding meaningful and satisfying work or impactful volunteer opportunities after service is critical to a warrior's overall health and wellness.

Social Support:

Led by a licensed clinical social worker, this domain is the entry point for all of HOPE's wellness services supporting our Warrior Community. In less than three days from initial inquiry, the Intake Coordination team conducts intake interviews with a focus on expressed need and well-being, and then connects each applicant, as appropriate, to HOPE's physical, emotional, financial, and transition health supports, as well as community and peer support resources.

Community Connection:

Integral to HOPE's continuum model, HOPE's all-veteran Military

Relations team individually engages with warriors throughout their journey as part of the HOPE family. The team connects warriors to new opportunities provided by HOPE along with those of HOPE's community partners. Hope's Ambassador Program offers opportunities for warriors to give back and support their comrades by providing 1-1 peer support. The Military Relations team helps warriors to find new ways to serve and to help warriors find where they fit and can engage in the larger community, outside of military service.

Services are available regardless of discharge status, role in uniform, combat experience, ability to pay, or insurance.

Military families can find care for: depression, anxiety, post-traumatic stress disorder, sleep problems, adolescent behavioral issues, relationship and family stress, and transitional challenges. Families also have access to case management support and local referrals to help with other stresses like unemployment, finances, housing, and legal issues.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Cultural Awareness:

HOPE's communications team drives the initiative to bridge the military-civilian divide through understanding of the needs of the veteran community and military families, and how the public at large can support them. The team facilitates dialogue, primarily through digital platforms, that brings awareness of and respect for the existing cultural differences and experiences. Additionally, sustained awareness of the needs of the military community results in effective programming for the DOD, Department of Veteran's Affairs, and socially-responsible corporate entities. This team informs HOPE and its partners with metrics and engagement strategies that continue that connection.

Expenses $ 559,963. including grants of $ 0. Revenue $ 0.

Community Engagement:

HOPE works directly at the community level to engage both military and civilian communities, uniting corporate and civil leaders, school districts, military agencies, and more to work together with a shared goal of embracing the military families within their communities. HOPE provides education and resources, both in person and virtually, to service members and their families as they transition out of the military. By developing relationships within the community - through both events and program work - HOPE establishes connectedness to community that is also a key component of the warrior culture.

Expenses $ 436,655. including grants of $ 21,211. Revenue $ 0.

Other Programs:

The Executive Team plays an integral role in the near fight and far fight of HOPE. Participating in conversations that drive change to protect the future of HOPE military families, while maintaining a personal touch with those HOPE serves, is critical in developing and maintaining relevant programming. The excellence of the HOPE team stems from the daily focus on team development. Specifically addressing the nature of HOPE work, advances in support, and the vision of HOPE, every staff member is immersed in opportunities to enhance
